

Stockton Youth Chorale

Come sing with us!

- leadership
- stage presence
- confidence
- camaraderie

The Stockton Youth Chorale is dedicated to children who love to sing! The SYC is an opportunity for young singers to share their talent and love for singing, sharpen their skills, perform with local artists, learn cool new stuff about music, and make new friends.

*"I have sung in the Youth Chorale for four years.
I like it because it is a chance to meet my friends and improve my singing."
Anneka Sonstroem, singer*

2010-11 Season

- Sing with the Stockton and Master Chorales
- Perform with the Stockton Symphony
- Sing in the chorus of La Bohème with the Stockton Opera Association (select students)
- Carol in Lincoln Center
- Sing at the Haggin Museum
- Perform the National Anthem at a Ports Game

Joan Calonico, Director

A graduate of UOP in Music Education, Joan is in her ninth year directing the SYC. She has been working with young musicians all her life, teaching general music and chorus, directing honor choirs, presenting workshops, adjudicating choral and vocal competitions, and serving as guest lecturer in music education at UOP. She is currently principal of Don Riggio School, where Visual & Performing Arts is an integral part of every student's education.
